

Snowman

All measurements are from center to center. The diameters of the circles should be from center of one cone, directly across center to center of opposite cone.

